

CARLOTTA W. JACKSON

EXPERIENCE

- 1989-pres. Homeschooled nine children through high school
2007-2016 Taught beginning writing classes and writing classes based on U.S. History and Christian apologetics for homeschool community

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 1982-1984 Home health nurse for Spartanburg County Health Department
1981-1982 Taught medical-surgical nursing at USC Spartanburg (now USC Upstate) in its Associate Degree Program
- 1979-1981 Served as a journeyman in Gaza, Israel (a two year missionary opportunity for college graduates) for the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board (now IMB)
Head nurse for the hospital wards at Gaza Baptist Hospital
Dorm mother for female nursing students
Taught medical-surgical nursing in Gaza Baptist Nursing School
Developed home health program in Gaza refugee camps
- 1/79 – 6/79 Home health nurse for Greenville County Health Department
- 9/78-12/78 Coronary care nurse, Baptist Hospital, Columbia during which time I began my Master's in Nursing at USC; withdrew due to a family death
- 6/77 – 9/78 Participated in nurse internship program at McLeod Memorial, Florence, SC; concluded this program in coronary care

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Nursing, 1977, Clemson University
Graduated with High Honor (now Magna Cum Laude)
Member of honor societies Alpha Lambda Delta, Nursing Honor Society and Phi Kappa Phi

VOLUNTEER/MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Church pianist, choir member, and/or worship leader as needed
Multiple Bible/training teaching positions
Mission trips – India, Venezuela, Romania, Bermuda, Boston, Atlanta, Canada