

Robert E. Jackson, Jr., M.D.

Education:

Clemson University, 1977, B.S. Microbiology, High Honor (Magna Cum Laude)
Medical University of SC, 1981, M.D.
Spartanburg Regional Medical Center, 1984, Family Practice Residency
Spartanburg Regional Medical Center, 1985, General Surgery

Board Certification:

American Board of Family Practice, '84,'90,'97,'03,'08

Professional Experience:

Westgate Family Physicians, PA, Physician, 1985-present, Spartanburg
Spartanburg Family Medical Consultants, 2006-present, Spartanburg Regional Lakeview Nursing Home, Medical Director, 1986-1988, Spartanburg
Hillcrest Hospital, Weekends only, Fast Track ER Physician, Simpsonville, SC, 2005-2009

Professional Associations:

Spartanburg County Medical Society
SC Association of Family Practitioners
American Academy of Family Practitioners
South Carolina Medical Association
American Board of Family Medicine

Extracurricular Activities:

Deacon, including chairman, Sunday School teacher, Disciplemaker for most of adulthood
Speaker in churches and at fund raising events
Seventeen mission trips to eleven countries
Co-founder of Carolina Pregnancy Center and Chairman of Board for thirteen years
Instrumental in start up of three additional crisis pregnancy centers
Former member of SC Christian Life and Public Affairs Committee
Former member of SBC Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission
Member Boiling Springs First Baptist Church - 2009-present
Board member - SC Association of Independent Homeschools - 2012-present

Awards:

Order of the Palmetto, 1997
E. A. McDowell Award, 2013

Family:

Husband of Carlotta for 35 years (daughter of SBC pastor and former journeyman to Gaza)
Father of nine children